Perception Disassociation Department

This wiki is the operations and personnel documentation for a fictional company called Elion Global (EG). This documentation is comprised of at least 2 text-based creative writing games, and maybe more, that players may undertake to flesh out the world of EG. There's a Nomic which guides the general operation of this site and of the company. Also, there's a glossary / encyclopedia that allows our players employees to fill the backstory of the company and it's founders.

We're shooting for a creepy-pasta, mystery-box, liminal space and Severance meets a boring generic corporate America feeling.

You'll notice that are no images here that depict people (neither shiny nor happy). The employees are encouraged to make their usernames generic or boring in order to hide their true selves. We trying to capture the cold inhuman liminal creepiness of American corporate culture.

Employees who work hard and support EG's mission can be rewarded with promotion to Manager and the eternal gratitude of EG and its Founder!

We'll be accepting new players employees soon! Check back!
